

BECOME A Director

You have the opportunity to make an impact on Iowa agriculture and your cooperative! As a member owned organization, Key Cooperative is governed by a 12 person Board of Directors – 10 are elected and two are appointed. Each fall, we invite our member-owners to consider running for the upcoming election or nominating other members as potential directors.

If you're interested in serving your fellow cooperative members and representing the Key Cooperative board, please contact Directors:

- Bryce Arkema (Bryce.Arkema@keycoop.com)
- Mike Engbers (Mike.Engbers@keycoop.com)
- Brian Larsen (Brian.Larsen@keycoop.com)
- Ryan Bell (Ryan.Bell@keycoop.com)

Highlights of a director:

- Directors develop personally & professionally
- Directors work as a team and build their leadership skills
- Directors learn how to navigate the cooperative system through strategic planning and budgeting
- Directors have regular opportunities to network with their peers and develop relationships within the industry

Qualifications of a director:

- Must be a Class A member
- Each elected director serves a three year term
- Each director serves on one or two sub-committees
- Board meetings are held once a month
- New directors are announced at the Annual Meeting and take seat in January

Make an Impact. Become a Key Cooperative Director!